

Responsibility for Functions

Source: This part is required under Article 4 and Article 7 of this Constitution; Section 13, Local Government Act 2000, the Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 (as amended); The Local Government Act 2000 (Constitutions) (England) Direction 2000 & takes into account the Secretary of State's Guidance, Chapter 5.

1 Responsibility for Council Functions

1.1.1 Regulations: Functions which must not be the responsibility of an authority's executive from the Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 SCHEDULE 1 Regulation 2(1)

1.1.2 Explanation: The law requires the following functions must be the responsibility of Full Council and not the Executive.

1.1.3 The Full Council can discharge these functions itself or may delegate one or more functions to a committee or sub-committee of Councillors, an officer of the Council or another authority. The Full Council may always exercise powers it has delegated to the other bodies or persons set out above. It may also discharge its functions jointly with one or more other Councils.

1.1.4 Delegations to Officers are listed in this Part, the Articles and the terms of reference of committees in this Constitution.

1.1.5 Delegation is a simple way of allocating matters to an appropriate level so that the Full Council's functions are dealt with in an efficient and effective way.

3 Responsibility for Executive Functions

3.1.1 The Local Government Act 2000 (as amended) provides that all functions of a local authority, except (a) those specified by law or in this Constitution as non-executive functions shall be discharged by the Executive.

3.1.2 The Executive shall consist of an Executive Leader (the Leader) appointed by Full Council and 2 to 9 elected members (the Executive) appointed by the Leader. The Executive will be known collectively as the Executive.

3.1.3 The Leader shall appoint one Executive member as Deputy Leader. The Deputy Leader will be able to exercise the powers of the Leader of the Council if:

- a) the Leader is unable to act or
- b) the office of Leader of the Council is vacant.

3.1.4 If both the Leader and Deputy Leader are both unable to act, the Executive as a whole must exercise the Leader's powers or arrange for a member of the Executive to act in his/her place.

3.1.5 The Leader shall determine how all executive powers shall be discharged. The Leader may:

- a) discharge any of those functions; or
- b) arrange for the discharge of any of those functions:
 - i. by the Executive collectively,
 - ii. by another member of the Executive,
 - iii. by a committee of the Executive, or
 - iv. by an officer of the Authority.

3.1.6 Executive functions may also be discharged by another arrangement allowed by law including by another authority, by an area committee or jointly with one or more other authorities.

3.1.7 The Monitoring Officer will maintain and publish a record of all arrangements made under this Part including but not limited to a list of Executive members, their responsibilities and delegated powers. Where appropriate, the Council's scheme of delegation may set out these arrangements.

4 Delegations to Officers

4.1 Introduction

4.1.1 For the purposes of this section, the officers to whom delegations are made are as follows:

- Chief Executive and Statutory Officers
- Directors
- Other Staff
- Proper Officers for the purposes of specific legislation (as set out below) and as defined by section 270(3), Local Government Act 1972.

4.1.2 The delegations set out below apply to those functions which have not, by virtue of this Constitution or any other instrument, been reserved to Council or Executive and any committees or sub-committees thereof.

4.1.3 Delegations set out in this section are in addition to any delegations made in the Articles, and/or the Terms of Reference, of this Constitution.

4.2 Powers of the Chief Executive

4.2.1 To exercise authority over the Directors, including allocating Directors' portfolios.

4.2.2 To exercise the powers delegated to any Director or other members of staff so far as the law allows.

4.2.3 To carry out the functions of the Council for civic aid and emergency planning and to take any action, including incurring expenditure, in connection with an emergency or a disaster in the Council's area.

4.2.4 To call any additional polls required after a Void Election where a Parish was inquorate as Returning Officer in line with the requirements of the Representation of the People Act 1983. This delegation was approved by the Council on 24.05.22.

4.2.5 In consultation with Group Leaders, to make temporary appointments to inquorate Parish or Town Councils along with the making of the necessary order under section 91 of the Local Government Act 1972. Appointments to be made in line with the procedure adopted by the Council on 24.05.22.

4.2.6 To undertake any other functions necessary for the carrying out of the role of Chief Executive, within any existing legislative and policy constraints.

4.3 Powers of the Directors

4.3.1 The Directors for the Council and their areas of responsibility are referred to in Article 12 of this Constitution. In this Constitution, the term Director includes any officer who reports directly to the Chief Executive.

4.3.2 All Directors are delegated all those powers necessary to act within the assigned portfolio of responsibilities, as set out in Article 12 and the appendix to this Constitution. Note that this delegation is subject to the general provisions and limitations set out in this Constitution.

4.3.3 A Director may further delegate or authorise any of the powers delegated to him or her under this Constitution or any other applicable scheme of delegation, in so far as is legally permissible and in so far as not already delegated by virtue of this Constitution. A formal scheme of delegation or authorisation will be maintained within each Directorate. Any such scheme of delegation or authorisation must be:

- Recorded in writing; and
- Lodged with the Monitoring Officer who will keep a record of all delegations

4.4 Powers of Staff

4.4.1 All staff shall be delegated all those powers necessary to carry out those functions specified in their respective job descriptions and other supporting information that defines roles and responsibilities, subject to the general provisions and limitations set out in this Constitution.

4.5 General Provisions and Limitations

4.5.1 Apart from those powers set out below which have been generally or specifically delegated to staff, any remaining functions which have not been, under this or any other current scheme of delegations, specifically reserved to Council,

Executive or any committees or sub- committees thereof are delegated to officers.

4.5.2 Staff shall exercise powers under this scheme in compliance with:

- The rules of procedure set out in this Constitution;
- Corporate policies and strategies; and
- Any additional conditions imposed either by the Council or by statute or any statutory code of conduct.

4.5.3 The exercise of the powers delegated under this Constitution or any other scheme of delegation by staff involving the incurring of expenditure is subject to there being sufficient approved provision within their budget to cover that expenditure.

4.5.4 Each Director shall have all the powers and duties delegated to the officers who report directly to them or other staff within his/her Directorate, who are assigned to him or her, so far as is legally permissible.

4.6 Monitoring Officer and Section 151 Officer

4.6.1 The functions of the Monitoring Officer and Section 151 Officer are set out in Articles 12 and 14. So far as not specified by legislation, the Monitoring Officer and Section 151 Officer are delegated all powers necessary to carry out their statutory functions.

5 Proper Officer Functions

5.1 Meaning of Proper Officer Functions

5.1.1 The Council has approved and adopted the appointment of the following officers as proper officers, as described in the following specified sections of the relevant Acts of Parliament or regulations.

5.1.2 Proper officer is defined for most legislation by s.270 (3) Local Government Act 1972 as an officer appointed for that purpose by that body or for that area, as the case may be.

5.1.3 The deputy proper officer is given in brackets after the proper officer. The deputy proper officer is appointed to act where the proper officer is absent and/or unable to act for any reason. Where neither the designated proper officer nor the designated deputy proper officer is able to act, or if there is no specified designated proper officer or deputy proper officer, the Chief Executive may designate an appropriate person to act as proper officer or deputy proper officer. If the Chief Executive is unable to act, this power shall be delegated to the Monitoring Officer or, if the Monitoring Officer is unavailable, to the Deputy Monitoring Officer.
